

What is 4-H Camp?

4-H camp is a fun opportunity for boys and girls to learn skills through hands-on experiences.

The camping program helps youth build self-esteem, and challenges them to be innovative and creative. Participants have the opportunity to participate in exciting classes as well as swim and recreation time, special evening events, songs, games and more.

Are you into it?

If you are a person with a disability and desire any assistive devices, services, or other accommodations to participate in this activity, please contact Virginia Cooperative Extension, Louisa Office, at (540) 967-3422 during business hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, to discuss accommodations one week prior to events.

Louisa County 4H Camp

For all youth ages 9-13

And for Teen and Adult Volunteers

4-H camping

Teen Counselors

Teen Counselors play a very important role at 4-H camp. They must be a friend, guide, companion and teacher to campers. Teens will gain leadership skills and contribute to the future of Louisa County.

Teens must be 14 years or older by January 1 of the current 4-H year. An interview and 24 hours of training is required.

Adult Volunteers

Adult volunteer leaders are needed for camp. This is a great way to contribute to the growth and development of Louisa County Youth, as well as a chance to enjoy the outdoors! Training is required and adult volunteers must be 19 and up by the current 4-H year.

objectives

To have educational, recreational, and social experiences in outdoor living away from home.

To provide opportunities to meet and learn to get along with other people by living together and participating together in a camping experience.

To provide opportunities for youth to learn to take responsibility for their own decisions and actions.

To provide new experiences for youth by exploring new interests or by exposing them to new approaches to old interests, such as nature, aquatics, music, and other life skills that cannot be provided as effectively outside of camp.

To teach youth about citizenship and the importance of being a responsible citizen.

To discover and provide opportunities for developing leadership skills.

To discover special talents among campers and teen leaders and provide opportunities for developing these talents.

To have fun!

A Parent should know...

Our camp is more than just FUN! It is also:

- Accredited through the American Camping Association
- Staffed with highly qualified staff and teen and adult volunteers
- Focused on the 4-H "Learn by Doing" motto & experiential learning model
